A Note from ArtWorks owner Chet Griffith:

postage

I believe that local artists have a number of reasons to be excited about the arts here in Kenosha. In addition to the many fine galleries and arts institutions that are here in Kenosha, there is the newly formed Arts and Humanities Alliance. AHA! will be the unifying body that the arts so desperately needs.

I have the privilege of working with local artists every day. The single most important need that artists have, is the need for more local exhibition opportunities. Artists all agree that the more opportunities that are available to them, the better. With that in mind ArtWorks is proud to present our 2008 gallery schedule. This year's schedule includes several themed art exhibitions. These group shows allow for participation from dozens of artists. There is an open call for 3 separate shows this year:
"water"
"monster"
& "tiny Art"

ArtWorks also offers an open studio night on Friday nights from 6-9. It gives artists access to workspace as well as an opportunity to hear valuable feedback if you wish. Please feel free to call or send us an e-mail if you have any questions about the process.
